Apex control and administer in excess of 200 radio link schemes nationwide. We excel in the development of schemes and fully support our customers to provide security solutions in the retail environment.

Apex is the leading supplier throughout the country of Shopwatch schemes and will provide very economical solutions to combat theft and anti-social behaviour in your town or city.

There are numerous benefits to being a part of a Shopwatch radio linked scheme, such as reduced losses of stock, early warning of potential undesirable activity occurring within your premises, known shoplifters operating in your area can be identified and tracked, potential threats can be advised to all users of the system; forewarned is forearmed.

Apex will liaise with local police and crime reduction officers in your area to establish a scheme, if you would like further details of this type of radio scheme and the benefits it could offer your staff we would be pleased to discuss these with you at your convenience.

Town Centre Activites Ltd provides CCTV monitoring services throughout their region. They cover all North Lanarkshire Town Centre's including associated housing areas.

Airdrie was the first town in the UK to introduce CCTV into public areas and the Company has always been proactive in the fight against crime.

"Here at Town Centre Activites Ltd we were determined to assist the retail community by protecting shops and shoppers, and after contacting Apex, we thought that a two-way Radiolink scheme would be ideal in helping to combat crime and anti-social behaviour in our towns.

Motherwell, Coatbridge, Airdrie, Wishaw and Bellshill all have successful Radiolink schemes, the schemes in these towns allows the fast exchange of information to help more offenders be caught and make our towns safer places to work and shop.

We have had Radiolink schemes in North Lanarkshire since 2000 and we feel that the service and support we have received from Apex Radio Systems Ltd has been exemplary, they recently upgraded our scheme with state of the art radio equipment, featuring user ID and Panic facilities, and all at no extra cost to the radio users.

I would be pleased to recommend Apex to any other town or city who are interested in tackling retail crime, as I feel the service and on going support they provide to us as the co-ordinators and the users at store levels is professional, friendly and reliable, Apex Radio Systems Ltd are a dependable and trustworthy company."
