

Keeping You Safe

UK's No. 1 for Quality, Service and Value

Wolves and Humans Foundation UK Charity Organisation

"As a small charity Wolves and Humans Foundation has been overwhelmed by the help and generosity offered by Apex.

The friendly staff answered all of our questions and helped us find the right product to keep our volunteers safe and in touch with each other in the mountains.

The equipment worked brilliantly. It was completely reliable and very robust. The battery life was impressive, even in freezing temperatures and the radios were easy to use, despite our frozen fingers!

Apex radios supported our Wolf and Lynx survey with top quality equipment, generously lending us everything we needed and sending it to us free of charge. I can't praise them highly enough. They were a pleasure to work with and I would recommend them to everyone. Thank you Apex!"
