PGL Children's Adventure Holidays Liddington, Swindon

"I've recently set-up a 150 acre, 600 bedded children's outdoor education and adventure centre on the outskirts of Swindon.

With a site this size, radios were an essential addition to our kit list.

The staff at Apex were helpful and patient and were able to offer a great product at a great price.

The team at Apex have been able to help with small "one off" orders as well as bulk ordering and every time have been able to help and give advice on what would suit us and our operation.

I've been able to recommend Apex Radio Systems to my colleagues who work at our other centres across the U.K. and all have said how positive Apex have been in helping to meet their various needs."
